Are Your Unbelievers Better than Them?

The reactions of the members of apostate Brotherhood regarding the meeting between Turkish Taghut and their rival Jewish Taghut were evident as some affirmed it secretly and some accused it openly. And some of them justified this meeting shamelessly from many perspectives including "Economic relations", 'Expediency', 'Compulsion', "Grand strategy", "Mutual benefit," and many other terms until no words were left in the dictionary for the justification of this meeting. But their justification was completely void of any Islamic justification as they really don't bother that. Some of them have made excuses, saying that the meeting was based on the "separation of economy from politics." Eventually, this justification even bolsters their tie with secularist notions and tendencies, which are inseparable from the language of their analysts and theorists. This is due to fact that the viewpoints being exposed by their language reflect their faith lying deep in to their hearts. And that is a faith which has nothing to do with Islam.

Owing to secularist origin, Taghut Erdogan can do whatever he wishes at the "political level", such as befriending the jews, offering them condolences, condemning their killings at the hand of Muslims, bombing Muslims in Halab, destroying their homes, allowing the setting up of US military bases in their territories as part of their ongoing war against Islam, supporting the African Infidel governments in eir war against the Mujahideen, and so on. And all nullifiers of Islam and all anti-Islamic policies are justified for him. In addition to that, he can offer Salah at a corner of Hagia Sophia for selling his tricks to his followers! After the meeting, the apostate Brotherhood sought to remove, from themselves, the name of so called "political alliance", as if they were the "accusers", thinking that their hegemonic relationship with the Jews incorporates benefits for the Muslim Ummah. And the relationship of these Jews with the other Jews is based on "betrayal and disgrace" and they want to differentiate their Kufr with that of the others through this while Allah says: "Are your unbelievers better than them?" Imam Qurtubi says: "this is a question of denial and its meaning is negation; that your disbelievers are not better than the disbelieving nations who perished due to their disbelief.

Oh the so called "Good Tawagheet and bad Tawagheet" bringing changes in the Shari'a of Allah, rejecting the same, and making friendship with the enemies of Shari'a!, Oh the "revolutionists", the "pacifists"! Yours is a heretical division originated from the belief and widespread corruption of the apostate Brotherhood. The crime of apostate Brotherhood doesn't end with the distinction between Erdogan's friendship with the Jews and that of Ibn Zayd and Ibn Salman with the Jews. Rather, they are standing upon even more vicious crime. They say nothing from political or religious point of view about their friendship with Christians and polytheists while that goes against the clear command of Allah, which He mentions in the Qur'an about friendship with the Jews and Christians. Allah says: "O you who believe! Do not take Jews and Christians as your friends." and Allah also says: "You will find Jews and the polytheists in the harshest in enmity against the believers."Therefore, Allah has not only forbidden friendship with the Jews, nor has He permitted friendship with the Christians and polytheists (such as the friendship with the Iranian Rafidah and with the infidel and apostate governments on the basis of patriotism and expediency), but Allah (swt) has also commanded us to disbelieve in all Jews, Christians and polytheists, to be hostile to all, and to save ourselves from any kind of friendship with them.Whatever happened in the context of "economic relations", analysts of Brotherhood are not ashamed at all by saying that the Turkish regime has stood with the Jews when they officially condemned the attack on the Jews in Palestine. This was the act that silenced all sections of the Brotherhood and now no one is listening to them.

One of the reasons for their tailoring and the reason they cut it was that their Taghuti leader Erdogan had not only started relation with the Jews, but also was obliged to maintain those relations which have been inherited from the previous governments. If Morsi had stayed in power, the apostate brotherhood would only resort to him as the last resort. Their excuse is worse than sin. Because if the policy of the apostate Brotherhood is to build a bridge over the previous ones, so why do they insist on differences between their Tawagheet and that of their political rivals like UAE and the extremist Bahrain! And if the Taghut Brotherhood is walking on the way of infidelity and apostasy of the former ones, what is the point of their efforts to seize power? Recent meetings between the two factions have shown that the apostate Brotherhood, for their own imaginary interests, is bridging the gaps of friendship with every enemy of Islam. Although not a Jew, the meeting also showed that the official status of the Turkish tyrant is similar to that of other Arab tyrants, and that they have only made use of the Palestine issue in the same way! They chanted slogans and traded in the blood and wounds of Muslims. Certainly those, who still try to make the face of the Turkish tyrant Erdogan look beautiful to the Muslims and consider that as the only solution to the Ummah's issues, are the scoundrels of the time; the scoundrels of conspiracy and misguidance. They are the ones who have given the name of Shari'a to every falsehood and have made every useless thing look beautiful to the people. Sheikh Abu Al-Hassan Al-Muhajir (May Allah accept Him) says about them: "The worst criminal, most sinful, and heinous ones of them are the scholars and preachers of disbelief who, through their publications, Dar-ul-Ifta meetings, and scholarly occasions, support the polytheistic groups and the apostate governments in all forms of their friendship and support. When they meet each other, they give each other glad tidings of their disbelief and rejoiced over that. They come from every corner of the country to congratulate each other on the declaration of blasphemy and blatant apostasy. They take disbelief lightly and ultimately get close to it. They have been trying to distort the great religion and change its form. They have been increased in their deceit, they have spread heresies, and they have started worshipping their whims, which is a useless deity." Due to the Taghut Erdogan and the other Tawagheet of Brotherhood, not only the incompetent preachers have fallen into this tribulation, but also many leaders of the so-called "jihadist movements" have fallen into this. They have been fallen into the tribulation of grabbing the keys of authority from the tyrant governments. These great tribulations have made them change their messages and slogans with a view to gaining power only. They have rejoiced over positions in the governments and have started to think that this is the way they dreamed of! They have forsaken the path of Prophet (SAW) and His companions, which was the path to authority through the implementation of Shari'a. Had it not be the will of Almighty Allah that the authority of the apostate Brotherhood to be destroyed, we would have been able to see lot more alien things from the leadership of this apostate movement. We still remember the day when the Islamic State exposed the apostasy of Brotherhood. And Islamic State, at that time, was the only one to reveal the true color of this Taghut. Afterwards, many groups and individuals of this "movement" criticized the Islamic State and branded it as "thieves and foreigners" only because the it announced its severance from the apostate Brotherhood at a time when the leaders of the "movement" were sending messages of love and friendship to the Tawagheet of Brotherhood in Egypt, remembering them in prayers and praising them! It is now clear how the polluted air of the Brotherhood has torn this group apart as the members of this movement remain only in essence and content, but appear like the tyrant rulers. The apostate Brotherhood was the gateway to deviance through which the Crusaders destroyed the doctrines and beliefs of many groups, but Allah, by His grace, enabled the Islamic State to prevent the growth of this useless plant by sword, Dawah, and evidences. By the grace of Allah, the Islamic State has tried (from this pollution which kills monotheism and the faith of Walaa and Baraa) to save the generations of the Muslim Ummah and to purify the minds and hearts of the Muslims. The closer the group named "movement" approaches to the methodology of apostate Brotherhood, the greater becomes its hostility to Islamic State and its denial of it. Islamic state is the state whose path is becoming clearer day by day and so as its flag, the sincerity, and the deep insight of its leaders. It is the bounty of Allah which He gives it to whom He wills, and Allah is the possessor of great bounty. And all praise is due to Allah, the Lord of the worlds.

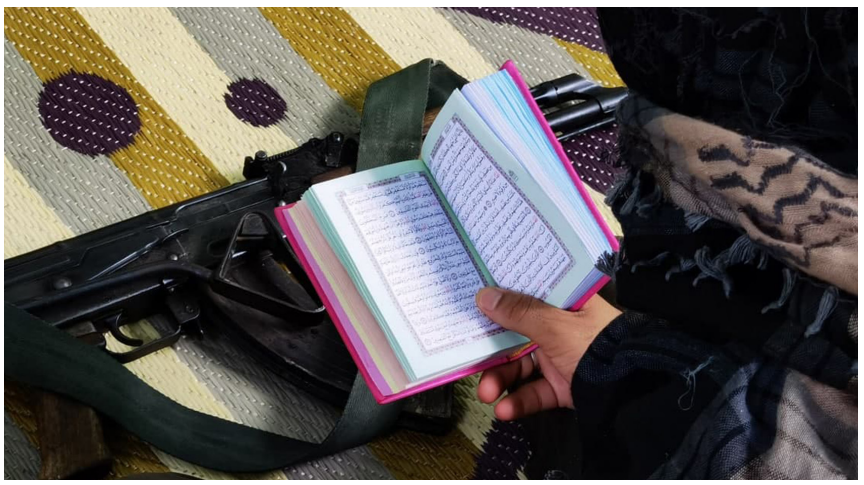
Our Predecessors During Ramadan

1 Recited the Qur'an



Many of them used to keep praying for about six months asking Allah to prolong their lives up to the month of Ramadan. As soon as Ramadan approach, they took full preparation regarding it. During the month of Ramadan, they started doing good deeds with full dedication. During this month, they hardly left provision for procrastination for the night and days as well as the age are limited and the conclusion of this worldly life is nothing but all on a sudden.

During this month, Allah revealed explicit verses to His Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon Him) as it is the month the Qur'an. Allah says: "The month of Ramadan is that in which the Qur'an (started to be) revealed as guidance for the whole of people with its clear evidences (providing comprehensive) guidance and the discrimination (between right and wrong)." [Al Baqara: 185] Ibn Kathir (May Allah have mercy on him) said: "Allah praised this month, made this month a glorified one, and it has been narrated in Hadith that holy Scriptures were revealed to other Prophets during this month.

Two teachers used to study Qur'an

Those possessing the understanding of Qur'an mostly and those who were the most trustworthy regarding this matter among the whole creations were Jibrail (Peace be upon Him) and Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon Him). Those are ones who delivered Qur'an to mankind in intact form and those are the ones who revered Qur'an mostly. Both of them used to participate in sessions of reciting Qur'an to each other in the month of Ramadan. And it has been narrated by Abdullah Ibn Abbas (May Allah be pleased with him): "The Messenger (Peace and blessings be upon Him) was the most generous one among the people, and when He (peace and blessing be upon Him), used to give charity even more when He (peace and blessing be upon Him) would meet Jibrail (Peace be upon Him) during the month of Ramadan. And Jibrail (Peace be upon Him) would meet Him every night in Ramadan and recite Him verses of Qur'an. As a result, Prophet (Peace and blessings be upon Him) would rush to give charity." [Muttafiqun Alaihi] Ibn Hajar stated: "This narration depicts many benefits; glorifying Ramadan as the Qur'an started revealing in this month, Jibrail (Peace be upon Him) appeared more frequently in this month, and Khayr and blessings that were associated with His frequent appearance. In addition to that, blessing of time expands with worshipping as the recitation of the Qur'an begets blessings.

This narration signifies the importance of worshipping more in the later ages and that of meeting Scholars and righteous ones even though there remains no necessity of sincere advice and reminder. This narration also depicts that the nights of Ramadan are better than the days. The motive of reciting verses is that mind remains ready and grasps sound reasoning. Nights of this month are better than the days for those are free from religious and worldly businesses of the days." [Fath ul Bari]

It can also be understood from this hadith that no matter how much a person possesses good behavior, he or she is in need of taking advantage from reciting the Qur'an for that beautifies behavior and characteristics. As this is the greatness of the Qur'an as Allah says: "This is most surely a Holy Qur'an (bestowing bounteous blessings of Allah." [Al Waqiya: 77] The Qur'an is an excellent book which creates spaciousness in the chest. And the one who doesn't give time to Qur'an cannot take advantage of it. And Allah says: "it is truly an invincible book." (Fussilat: 41) Qur'an is an excellent friend for the sad and worried ones. This is not just a mere Book from Allah. Rather, there is peace and tranquility in this Book. Allah says: "Those who believe and whose hearts find peace in the remembrance of Allah. Look! It is in the remembrance of Allah alone that the hearts really find peace." (Ar Rad: 28) Best of the men in the month of Ramadan is he who wets his tongue in recitation of the Qur'an. It has been narrated from Abdullah Ibn Masoud on the authority of Messenger of Allah (Peace and blessings be upon Him): "Whoever recites a letter from the Qur'an, he will be credited with a good deed and each good deed will be multiplied by ten. It is not like "Aleef Lam Meem" is considered as one letter. Rather, Aleef is one letter, Lam is another, Meem is the other. "[At Tirmidhi]. Eventually, all of them are the people of the Qur'an. Ibn Masoud (May Allah be pleased with him) said: "The reciter of the Qur'an can be recognized at night when all others are asleep, can be recognized by fasting when others are not doing so, can be recognized by crying when others are laughing, can be recognized by fearfulness of Allah when others are gossiping, can be recognized by humbleness, when others haughty." (Fadayel e Qur'an al Qasem ibn Salam] That is why our Salaf evaluated this great reward. Hence, they did not want to lose it. They knew that if they were able to combine the two acts of worship and they did not do it, it would be great loss for them. Some Scholars of Salaf used to spread knowledge among people, teach them the Qur'an, and attend their needs at the same time. They didn't turn their back from recitation of this great book of Allah.

Some flashing examples

Our Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him) did not take care of the affairs of the entire Ummah from portion to be allocated for the Qur'aan. Qatadah (May Allah be pleased upon Him) used to participate in sessions of the Qur'an during the Ramadan. With the advent of Ramadan he would say: "It is the month of recitation of the Qur'an and feeding people."

Ibn Abd al-Hakam said: "When Ramadan came, Imam Malik would to run away from reciting the Hadiths, from the gatherings of scholars, from the Mushaf to the recitation of the Qur'an." Abd al-Razzaq said: "Sufyan al-Thawri will abandon other acts of worship with the advent of Ramadan and turn to the Qur'an."

Aisha (may Allah be pleased with her) would recite the Qur'an early in the day and she fell asleep as the sun rose. [La Taif ul Mu'arif]

The books of biography and history have given us many shining examples of the righteous Salaf (may Allah have mercy on them). Salam ibn Abi Mati'i said: "Qatadah would recite the whole Qur'an within a week. With the advent of Ramadan, he recited the whole Qur'an in three days and during the last ten days he would recite the whole of Qur'an at every night." [As Seer Lithahabi]

Muhammad Ibn Jaher ibn Muhammad Ibn Qamir said: "We saw our father reciting the entire Qur'an three times a night and day and 90 times in the month on the occasion of recitation the Qur'an in Ramadan." [As Seer Lithahabi] Misbah ibn Sa'id says: "Muhammad ibn Isma'il al-Bukhari used to complete recitation of the whole Qur'an once in a day of Ramadan and after Taraweeh he would do Qiyam and used to complete the Qur'an once in three consecutive nights through Qiyam." [As Seer Lithahabi] Muhammad ibn Ali ibn Habish says: "Ahmad ibn Ata al-Baghdadi would recite the whole of Qur'an once a day and he would do the same in Ramadan. He would do another recitation of Qur'an in more than ten years so as to understand and reflect upon it." [As Seer Lithahabi] In fact, He used to recite the Qur'an to read it as well as to contemplate upon it. Rabi 'ibn Sulayman (may Allah be pleased with him) said: "I heard Shafi'i saying that he would recite the whole of Qur'an sixty times in Ramadan." [Huliyatul Awliya] It can be said that they would complete the Qur'an once a day and once a night. And it is only possible for them whose hearts are attached to the Qur'an and whose tongues do not stop reciting the Qur'an. Even in the modern time, there are people who can recite the whole of Qur'an from morning to afternoon.

This is the bounty of Allah which He gives to whom He wills. This was the deeds of our righteous Salaf who wanted to be blessed by the blessings of Ramadan. Imam Ibn Rajab (may Allah have mercy on him) said: "It is always forbidden to recite the whole of Qur'an in less than three days, except during the virtuous month of Ramadan, or especially during the last ten nights of it which contains the Laylat al-Qadr, or in the Holy places like Mecca for newcomers and non-residents of it. Therefore, more recitation of the Qur'an at these times and places is recommended as this should be considered as a Ghanima. This is the opinion of Ahmad, Ishaq, and other righteous scholars as mentioned earlier."[Latif al-Ma'arif].

To those who are engaged in protecting the interests of the Ummah, those who are engaged in jihad in the way of Allah, in pursuit of knowledge, and in fulfillment of the needs of the Muslims, they should continue that without diminishing that as the conditions of the people changes. Imam Nawawi says about the state of the Salafs regarding the recitation of the Qur'an: "The best thing is that recitation of Qur'an differs from person to person. Those, who recite the Qur'an and contemplate upon the meanings of it, should recite that much of Qur'an accordingly. Those, who are busy seeking beneficial knowledge or meeting the needs of the Muslims, should recites it until there is no reduction in these works. And whoever is not engaged in either of these things, should read as much as possible to the extent of fatigue and discomfort." [At Tabiyan fi 'Adab Hamalatil Qur'an]. Some of the etiquettes of recitation are mentioned by Ibn Al-Qayyim (may Allah have mercy on him): "Recitation of the Qur'an, listening to it, crying while reading and listening, reciting the Qur'an in a beautiful voice. About the way of the Prophet (peace and blessings of Allah be upon him): He (Peace and blessing be upon Him) would recite a part of it, He (Peace and blessing be upon Him) would not leave it in the middle, He (Peace and blessing be upon Him) would recite it slowly, He (Peace and blessing be upon Him) would not be too slow or too hasty, but His recitation would be such that every single letter could be heard clearly, every single verse would have a pause, and at the letters Mada He (Peace and blessing be upon Him) would do Mad as in case "Ar-Rahman" and "Ar-Raheem". " [Jad al Ma'ad] The best thing to do is to complete it in two rak'ahs of dawn or after them, and if it is completed at night, it should be done in two rak'ahs of Maghrib or thereafter to receive the seal at the beginning of the night and the beginning of the day. Ibn Masoud (may Allah be pleased with him) says: "Whoever completes the Qur'an, his supplication will be answered." Anas (may Allah be pleased with him) would gather his family after the recitation of the Qur'an and supplicate." [Mukhtasar Manhaj-ul-Qasidin]. Therefore, compete in doing good deeds as Ibn Al-Jawzi (may Allah have mercy on him) advises: "Brothers, do good deeds in this month, keep away from sins and so that this one does not repeat again. Know that this is a month of blessings. Realize the sanctity of food, Angels, Jins, and birds. Moments of this month are as beautiful as flowers, hours are like pearls, night is bright with Tarawih, day becomes brighter with prayer and the Adhkar, its adornment is "faith" and "sincerity", its fruit is freedom from the hellfire. Oh the ignorant ones, look at the Salafs, prepare your words with piety, hold your tongue for vain talks and soak it in remembrance of Allah, keep yourself from following instincts, and prepare yourselves with faith and conviction."[at-Tabsirat] Oh Allah! Grant us full faith and true conviction, open the door of your mercy for us, reform us, create sincerity in hearts, and accept our prayers, And all praise is due to Allah.

SAHL (MAY ALLAH BE PLEASED WITH HIM) NARRATED FROM THE PROPHET (PEACE AND BLESSINGS OF ALLAH BE UPON HIM) THAT HE SAID:

"Surely, there is a gate in heaven called Ar Ryan. On the Day of Resurrection, only fasting people will enter it, no one else will enter it except them. It will be heard: Where are the fasting ones? They will rise, no one but them will be able to enter it; when they enter the gate, it will be closed and then no one will enter it."
